Activities

The previous alumni association was not very active and so it was decided that the alumni association would be reconstituted and accordingly an invitation was sent out to many alumni. About a hundred alumni responded to the invitation and a meeting was held in which the executive committee was constituted with Advocate M R Ballal as President, Advocate Udayaprakash Muliya as Vice President, the Principal as treasurer Ex-officio, Advocate Mahesh Kaje as Secretary, Advocate & Notary H V Raghavendra as advisor, Advocate Raghavendra Rao as joint secretary, Advocate Sathish B K as Co-ordinator for membership & Advocate Soujanya Hegde as the Co-ordinator for cultural activities.

The formal inauguration of the activities of the Alumni Association was happened in the presence of the Chief Justice of Kerala High Court & our alumnus Justice Anthony Dominic during the National Law Fest.

Soon after, the Byelaws of the association were framed and it was formally registered at the office of the Registrar of Societies, Mangalore. A website was created to facilitate the spread of awareness about the reconstituted alumni association, its activities and to reach out to the maximum number of alumni, there is a portal by which alumni can join the association by payment of prescribed fee for annual membership, life membership fee and as patrons.

On 4th August 2018, the class of 1989-1994 had a reunion programme in the college auditorium. The former principals Prof. N J Kadamba, Prof. A Rajendra Shetty, Dr.B K Ravindra & Dr.P D Sebastian and Office Manager Shri Krishnadas were felicitated for their immense service to the institution.

During the valedictory function of the national law fest several alumni who had been recently selected as the Judges of the Karnataka Judicial Service were felicitated on their selection.

After the reconstitution of the association there is increased participation of the alumni in college events and greater contribution to the activities and development of the college by officiating as judges in the inter class moot court competitions, as well as the national law fest, delivering of guest lectures, sponsoring of prizes and facilitation of internships and placements.

A social media page (Facebook) by name SDM Law College and PG Centre was created mainly to reach out to our alumni by regular posting of videos and pictures of various activities of the college. About three thousand alumni belonging to various batches of the college are interacting with each other in this page.
