About the Conference

The Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act (MTP Act) recognizes the rights of the woman who wishes to undergo the termination of her pregnancy. Under the Act, the permissible ground of medical termination depends upon the mental and physical health of the woman. The MTP Act, applies to all women regardless of their marital status and therefore the term "pregnant woman" or "pregnancy" is used which does not indicate the marital status of the pregnant woman. The MTP Act 1971 allowed for the termination of pregnancy up to 12 weeks and in emergency cases, up to 20 weeks. Aborton as per the MTP Amendment Act 2021. A woman's right to make reproductive choices is also a dimension of personal liberty as under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. It is important to recognize that reproductive choices can be exercised to procreate as well as to abstain from procreating and the crucial consideration is that a women's right to privacy, dignity, and bodily integrity should be respected.

When we talk regarding a woman's right in having or not to have a child, the rights of a man are ignored. Even though a woman is the one to bear the child, the man has equal right in having a say. It is unreasonable that, after fertilization has occurred women have several opportunities to legally opt out of pregnancy and parenthood, whereas men have none.

Another crucial point is that medical termination of pregnancy results in the death of a living being. The foetus's heart starts beating as early as 5-6 weeks. The Indian law speaks about the right to property of an unborn child. The fundamental question is: what is the right of an unborn child? Doesn't an unborn child have the right to life? As per Article 21 of the Indian Constitution, nobody has the right to take away any person's life except by the procedure of law, and hence, the unborn child deserves all the fundamental rights and he should be granted the "Right to life" as per "Article 21 of the Indian Constitution" similar to a normal person.

With this background the conference aims to address the following issues:

- What are the legal aspects of a women's right to retain or terminate her pregnancy?
- 2. Whether the sole decision of a woman to terminate her pregnancy violates the rights of other stakeholders?
- 3. What are the ethical and legal dimensions of the MTP Act?
- 4. MTP Act and women's right to health.
