With kick off in December 2023, the main focus has been to bring friendliness with the Books among students. To focus on bringing out the interests of students and encourage showcasing what has been hiding / lost. Providing platform with Vast Pallet of Participative Activities filled with loads of fun.

EVENTS:

December 2023 – War of Imagination:

- The picture poem competition among students brought out the various creative details and ideas that an individual can express through poetry.

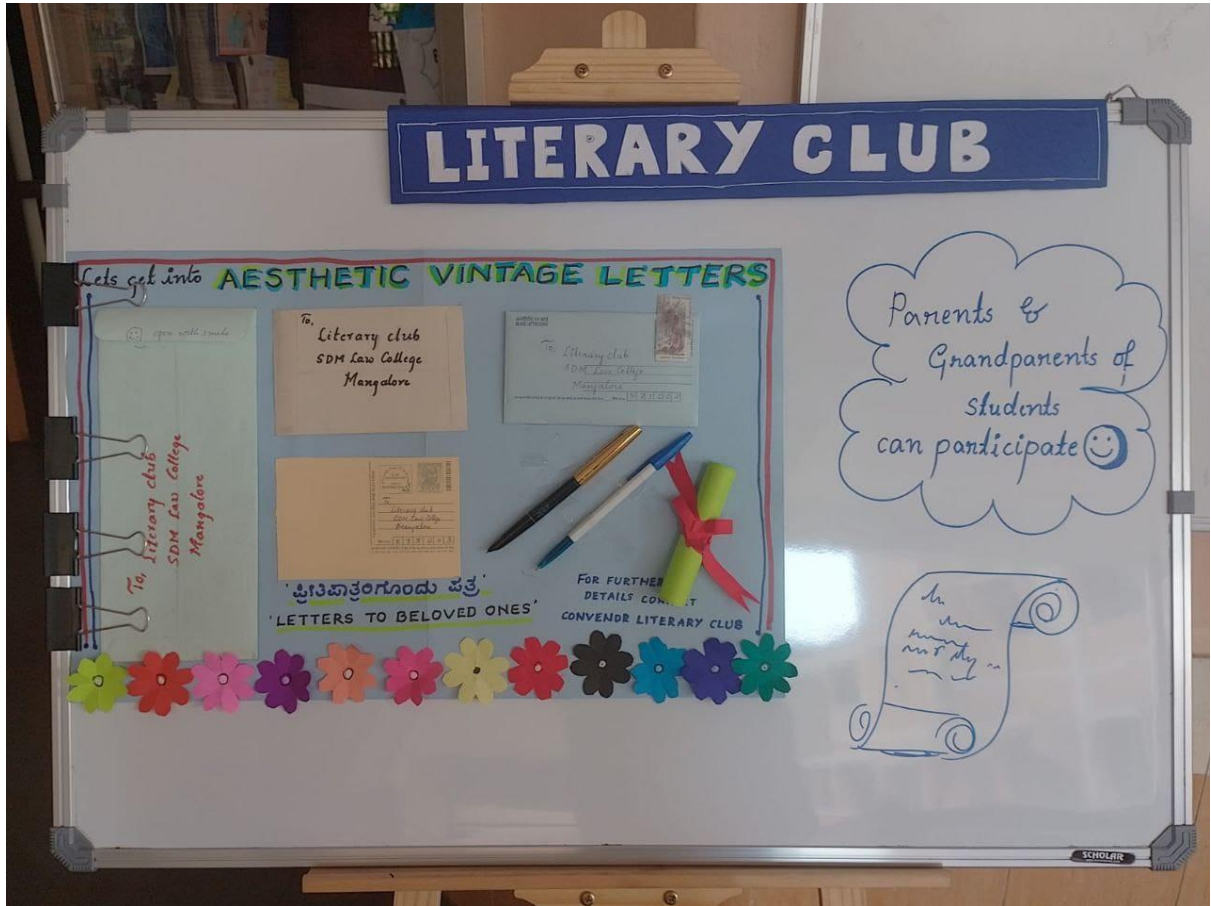

- The Impact: Poetry is a beautiful skill that enhances your language as well as communication skills.
- There was lot of commotion among the students with actual participation of about 15, the best entries won prizes too.

January 2024 – Picture Abhi Baki Hai:

- The Movie Review event encouraged students to be imaginative and bring out their own conclusions.
- The impact: Breaking the language barrier as the review could be written in any language as per their choice and express to their heart's content.
- With actual participation of 20 odd students, invoked lots of feedbacks across the verbal discussions.

February 2024 – Lets Write Dreams:

- letter writing event took the students / teachers down the memory lane by bringing forth the good old ways of reaching out to the loved ones and make them feel close and special.
- The Impact: Encouraged the teachers and students to indulge in basic hand written letter writing skills in these times of internet / mobile usage.
- Not only students but also teachers / lecturers took part in this event by writing letter(s) to their near and dear making it a grand success.

There were Daily Attractions / Updates:

Wide attention / excitement / inquisitiveness was garnered through daily puzzles, riddles, quizzes and attractions to keep the audience entertained.

Read, Watch and Imagine through weekly Open Book Sessions to extend the lining of imagination. It was endeavour to encourage that while reading try imagine how it would look in real life.

June 2024 – Battle of Minds:

- Story Writing competition brought out the creativity and mania of original story writing skills.

- Stories which have never been heard of before that we have grown up with blended with own ideas and presentation skills.
- Keenly followed by mass of students with actual participation of 20 odd students, the best entries won various prizes.

June 2024 – The Book Fair:

- The main focus of the book exhibition was to encourage the reading habits among the students with a bit of fun involved through classy old comics.
- The exhibition extended for a week included free of charge lending of books as well which led to huge amount of involvement and was found to be most “student friendly”.

Impact:

Loads of students benefitted from this club with:

1. Communication skills
2. Faster learning ability
3. Making one feel special
4. Originality in personality
5. Above all, Making one happy
